Description

An exciting week in the nature of PARCO EQUESTRE APPALOOSA HORSE-CLUB and together with horses in the middle of the beautiful surroundings of the mountains that border the plateau of Asiago (Vicenza). The area was declared nature reserve by the European Union for its biodiversity in the "Nature 2000 network". A unique opportunity to experience the World of the Horse at 360 ° and 24 hours a day, getting to know him and to care for it. It 'also an opportunity to try other sports such as swimming, hiking, biking, ice skating ... without forgetting the fun of Acropark and bouncy, the House of Dwarves and the Roana Lake ... and evenings with karaoke, baby dance, barbecues, cinema under the stars ... Also offers much to Venetian tradition and Cimbric culture, with delicious Italian food and wine. There is also much of history of the first world war, the Republic of Venice and the prehistory.

Plan morning Activities

- Introduction in the horse riding, exercises and games on horseback differentiated by age and preparation level of the rider;
- Techniques to improve the attitude and motor coordination;
- Lessons for: horse training and ethology, veterinary, hoof care, hippology, nutrition and welfare of the horses;

Plan afternoon Activities

- Skills in the stable, horse-watching, pic.nic with horses, farm with production cheese Asiago dop, swimming, beach, volleyball - Play and recreational activities appropriate to the age of the rider
